DIED A BORNIN'.

Chicago Will not have a Hypnotic Clinic as Announced.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—A local paper says that Chicago's hypnotic clinic, "died aborning." It was to have begun today at the Illinois Medical College, and promised to furnish the greatest sensation which the profession of medicine and surgery in Chicago have known for years, but the great public attention it attracted even before its commencement was too much for the conservative physicians identified with the college and the management of the institution in consequence recently decided not to allow the clinic to begin. This was to have been the first public hypnotic institution in the United States conducted by a medical school. It was to have been open to the public and would have taken an equal footing with the other free clinics run by the Illinois Medical School. As an adjunct to the practice of medicine hypnosis has been used for some time abroad. In France, Germany, Austria, Holland and Sweden special hospitals and institutions have been established which are devoted exclusively to the treatment of disease by hypnosis. In the United States the only public clinic where hypnosis has been used is the dental clinic of the University of Minnesota, but the medical faculty caused its withdrawal.

MAUD STRAWN'S DEATH.

Supposed Due to Chloroform Administration by Two Rape Victims.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

OMAHA, (Neb.) Feb. 17.—A special to the Bee from Sheldon, Ia., says that part of the State is in a fever of excitement over new developments which bid fair to unravel the mystery surrounding the death of Maud Strawn, the handsome 18-year-old schoolgirl whose lifeless body was found in her room at her married sister's home here last week. It was thought at first to be a case of suicide, but later developments have asserted that the theory, and A. L. Bull and G. Morrello have been arrested, charged with criminal knowledge of the girl's death. It developed at the coroner's late inquest while there was no outward indication of violence, yet there was proof of the girl having been outraged. It was also asserted by witnesses that Bull and Morrello were seen to enter the house on Wednesday, the day that Maud Strawn is supposed to have been killed. Bull has of late been paying considerable attention to Miss Strawn, and the supposition is that he took Morrello along with him and by administering chloroform, they accomplished her ruin and death.

Huntington Interposes No Objection—The Committee Favorably Impressed with the Arguments—The Speakers and the Speeches.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(Special Dispatch.) The delegates from the Free Harbor League appeared before the River and Harbor Committee of the House today. Strong speeches were made in favor of the project by W. C. Patterson, Col. H. G. Otis, W. D. Woolwine, and W. G. Kerckhoff, Representative McLachlan and Senators White and Perkins. C. P. Huntington was present. He did not oppose the arguments. The committee listened with great interest and the drift of the questions asked seemed to indicate very favorable sentiment. Senator White stated that there was no opposition to the project of the league committee in the last session in favor of the harbor, having been withdrawn. The memorial of the Free Harbor League was presented by Col. Otis. The members of the delegation expect to return in two or three days.

THE SPEAKERS.

Able Presentation of Arguments.

Clinching the Proposition.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 17.—(Special Dispatch.) The delegates representing the Los Angeles Free Harbor League, consisting of Col. H. G. Otis, W. G. Kerckhoff, W. C. Patterson and W. D. Woolwine, appeared before the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors today in behalf of the application for the inner harbor at San Pedro. They were reinforced by Senators White and Perkins and Representative McLachlan. C. P. Huntington was an interested listener.

The Californians were allowed only half an hour in which to set forth their claims, but they made good use of the limited time. Senator White made use of the opportunity to put a flea in the ear of the River and Harbor Committee, which will no doubt go a long way toward securing for San Pedro harbor the appropriation asked for. It has been so apparent, ever since the opening of the session that western men were getting shortened of every thing in the way of appropriations and other favors that Senator White thought it about time to call a halt. He told the committee today that San Pedro harbor had been entirely omitted in the appropriations of the last Congress, and that while he was in favor of keeping down appropriations now, he considered the improvement of the San Pedro harbor a necessary and reasonable one, and that if the committee should cut it off without any appropriation whatever when the River and Harbor bill reached the Senate, the committee was somewhat dumbfounded at Senator White's grasp, but they could not fail to grasp his meaning.

Representative McLachlan made the opening statement before the committee and introduced the members of the Los Angeles delegation. He explained that the entire southern part of the State was in favor of the improvement of the inner harbor, and that it was looked on as a common benefit. The committee did not appreciate the weight of this statement at the time, but upon request it was explained to them after the meeting that it was a rare thing when the people of California could unite on anything, no matter how much of improvement it might be to the State. Mr. McLachlan gave facts and figures about the work and referred to the report made by Col. Benyard as to the cost of the harbor improvement as feasible.

Col. H. G. Otis spoke next. He called the attention of the committee to the fact that an appropriation was not asked for new work, but for the furtherance of improvements mapped out by the government engineer. He stated that the delegation appearing before the committee represented the Free Harbor League of Los Angeles, which had a membership of 300 leading citizens, and that it had the indorsement of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, which had a membership of 1000. There was not a difference of opinion as to the necessity of improving the harbor and that it was for the benefit of the entire southern part of the State as well as a part of Arizona. Col. Otis showed the importance of the harbor from the commercial standpoint by quoting figures as to the amount of tonnage during the past year. In reply to a question from Representative Hermann of Oregon, a member of the committee, as to whether business had increased this year over last, Col. Otis stated that the tonnage of lumber vessels had almost doubled this year over last year. He considered the improvement to the harbor not only of benefit to California, but to the United States as well.

Mr. Kerckhoff explained the recommendations made by Col. Benyard, and stated, in suggestion of Senator White, that the work already done on the harbor was perhaps the most successful ever undertaken by the government engineers. He stated that the harbor was peculiar in that, when it rained it rained to a certain depth it maintained it. This, he said, was owing to the current, which, instead of filling up the harbor, tended to continually deepen it.

"Have you noticed that the deepening of the channel has brought in the harbor a great number of larger vessels?" asked Mr. Hermann, to which Mr. Kerckhoff replied that it had, noticeably. Then Mr. Hermann wanted to know if the deepening of the channel had served to reduce rates of shipping to the people of California. "The larger the vessels," said Mr. Kerckhoff, "the cheaper are the rates." Mr. Patterson stated that the growth of the southern part of the State had been phenomenal and that the requirements for transportation facilities had kept pace with the growth of the country. In the name of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, he asked that the committee report favorably on the request for an appropriation for the inner harbor.

Senator White said that at least 150,000 people would be benefited by the harbor. He also referred to Gen. Craig's indorsement of the project, and to Col. Benyard's recommendations as to the amount necessary for the work. It was at this point that Senator White gave the committee a tip that it might be well for them to remember California, when they were making up the list of appropriations, if they wanted any favors out of the Senate.

Senator Perkins followed by saying that he indorsed all Senator White had said, intimating that he would be on hand to back up the senior Senator in fighting the River and Harbor Bill if it came to the Senate without an appropriation for San Pedro. Senator Perkins stated that San Pedro was one of the few natural harbors on the Pacific Coast, and he considered the improvements asked for as highly necessary to the shipping interests of that part of the country.

Representative McLachlan did a fine piece of work in getting the delegation before the committee. He arrived on Saturday, and by 1 o'clock on Monday they had finished their work. The other California delegation, representing the River and Harbors Convention, will be heard Wednesday morning.

THE MEMORIAL.

Text of the Exhaustive Document Presented to Congress.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—A delegation representing the Free Harbor League of Los Angeles, appeared before the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors today to urge an appropriation of $322,725 for the improvement of the inner harbor at San Pedro, Cal., recommended by the Board of Army Engineers.

The delegation was composed of Col. H. G. Otis, publisher of the Los Angeles Times; W. C. Patterson of the Chamber of Commerce; W. D. Woolwine and W. G. Kerckhoff of Los Angeles. They were assisted by Senators White and Perkins and Representative McLachlan of California.

Col. Otis presented a memorial from the Free Harbor League, showing the necessity for the immediate appropriation of the amount asked for. The following is the text in full: LOS ANGELES (Cal.) Feb. 17, 1896. To the Congress of the United States: The Free Harbor League of Los Angeles, speaking in the name of its 300 members, representing the people of this city, and with the indorsement of her Chamber of Commerce, have the honor to present for your consideration the important facts embraced herein touching the further improvement of Wilmington Harbor, the government harbor of the city of Los Angeles, and the large and important territory adjacent thereto.

LOST IN FLAME

Women and Girls Perish Miserably.

Destruction of a Shirt Factory at Troy, N. Y.

A Small Boy and a Match the Cause.

Mad with Terror the Unfortunates Leap from the Burning Building.

Heroic Work of Firemen and Police—The Victims.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

TROY, (N. Y.) Feb. 17.—A small boy carelessly throwing a match into a pile of waste, a mass of flames, 300 girls and women, frenzied with fright, fighting for life as the flames chased them with hungry tongues, was the beginning of a fire tonight that consumed thousands of dollars' worth of property and caused the destruction of many lives.

From the outside of the high building the sight of a body of girls as they rushed out on the fire-escapes from the windows, those who were more fortunate crowding out the entrance. Following them was a mass of smoke with flashes of hot flames in lurid streaks. Then the mass of frenzied humanity finding the egress too small for instant escape, began climbing over the sides of the escapes and bundles of clothing, filled with writhing humanity, dropped at the feet of horrified passers-by. Within twenty minutes after the fire started there were three dead women laid upon the floor of an adjoining store and at least a dozen burned and maimed girls and women taken to the hospital or to their homes. Of the 350 girls and women in the building it is presumed that at least a half dozen are in the ruins, for it is impossible to locate all and there may be a score of dead.

It was just thirty minutes before the closing hour in Stettin & Co.'s shirt waist factory on River street, and 350 girls and women were working rapidly to finish up. In the cutting-room on the fifth floor the 150 girls were closing up their day's work and preparing to leave when the whistle blew. Little Kreiger, who was working near a machine, called to a small boy to light the gas over her work. The boy struck a match and threw the burning stump to the floor. It struck a pile of oily rags and in instant the girl was enveloped in flames. With her clothes and hair burning, she rushed to the window and at once the room became a struggling, shrieking mass of humanity, filling the windows, the fire-escapes and the only stairway, jamming and pushing, tearing each others' clothes from their backs, turning in narrow corridors to find a sister, or mother or friend, the number in the exits augmented every minute by those from the other floors, the girls and women fought for their lives to get away from the flames that seemed to be growing to a monstrous size.

With rare presence of mind, Policeman Farrell, who was on the street, seeing that in the panic a number were liable to jump, let down the awning over the entrance, and barely was it let down when two or three girls ran flying down from the fifth and sixth stories, and, bounding from the awning, fell to the sidewalk.

Fully white and over whose machine the fire started, was one of these. She struck the awning on her back and bounded to her hands and knees on the walk. She got up and staggered about until people helped her to her feet again. By this time nearly every window had a female figure hanging from it, and when the firemen arrived there was a hustle to get the ladders up.

At the center window on the sixth floor, a woman, hanging by her hands, was forced out by the flames licking her face. With a last shriek she let go and came tumbling down and struck the pavement. When picked up it was found that she was Mrs. Margaret Carroll. Her spinal column was forced through her brain.

Just below her, on another window, hung a woman, and as the firemen glanced to the crowd, the black smoke was pouring from the window, but yet no flames were visible, and the crowd encouraged her to hold on. But a high red flame reached out just then and licked her face, and in an instant her body was rebounding from the pavement. She was Mrs. Foley's widow. When picked up she was dead.

be removed to the hospital. The Italian will probably die, but the brave officers, while badly hurt, will recover. Capt. Willard of the police force says that he saw a number of girls at the windows who never came out, but fell back into the flames.

One fireman, who was working from the rear, saw three girls with their arms wound tightly about each other, turn in their frenzy and jump back into the flames. Some of the women who escaped tell of stumbling over prostrate bodies, and are positive that a score of girls perished. The girls who did escape live in various suburbs and hurried away, so that until the roll is called in the morning the exact number of missing will not be known.

Lottie and Nellie Hull, sisters, grasped each other tightly by the hands and started down from the sixth story. At the landing of the fifth floor they encountered a wall of flame and smoke. Nellie had on only her corset and skirt, having been making her toilet. Lottie was also only partially dressed, but she threw her dress over Nellie's face and together they went through the flames. Lottie's hair was burned entirely off and when she reached the sidewalk Nellie was burned only about the arms. They were taken home.

The loss by fire is from $250,000 to $400,000, with about $100,000 insurance. At least five hundred pupils are thrown out of work. The firemen worked to-night with the thermometer below zero, suffering greatly. Two corners were made of the fire and they were camped to care for the dead.

The following is a list of the dead obtained up to 11 o'clock:

MRS. MARGARET CARROLL, jumped from window.
MRS. FOLEY, jumped from window.
MRS. ROBERT KANE, jumped from window.
Those injured are:
MATTIE DAY, jumped and badly hurt.
ANNETTE HARRINGTON, badly hurt.
LILLIAN O'MATHOUT, burned.
MAMIE ROURK, burned.
LILLIAN KREIGER, burned and badly bruised.
JAMES QUINN, crushed under wall, will die.
MRS. JOHNSTON, badly burned, will die.
FRANK ROSSI, Italian, bruised by falling wall.
POLICEMAN BURKE, bruised by falling wall.
POLICEMAN WATSON, bruised by falling wall.
FIREMAN M'GUIRE, bruised by falling wall.
LOTTIE HULL, severely burned.
NELLIE HULL, badly burned.
Those missing and probably dead are:
MAMIE BANKS.
KATE O'CONNOR.
MISS HERBERCHER.
MIDNIGHT—Superintendent of Police Willard said at midnight: "The rumors from the various places show that there are at least fifteen people missing, and with the girls already known to be missing, will make twenty lost in the ruins. I am afraid that there are many more, and that it is impossible that all the people in that building should escape. A great many will not report to the police at the roll-call in the morning will evidently show that between twenty and thirty people are missing. Up to 1 o'clock no other bodies had been recovered."

THE WILSON TRIO DEFT THE OMAHA AUTHORITIES.

Two Orders Necessary from the Court Before They Could Be Forced into Its Presence—They Escape Prosecution.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.)

OMAHA, (Neb.) Feb. 17.—(Special Dispatch.) Chief Sigwart has a letter from Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson of Indianapolis requesting that he send their thirteen-year-old daughter Ruby, under arrest here, home at their expense. Inasmuch as the request was not accompanied with railroad fare, the chief is unable to do anything in the matter.

The Wilson family of California had not secured the services of an attorney at noon, and were apparently not inclined to get an attorney for their defense. Miss Marie said that she had made up her mind that she would be unlawfully and unjustly persecuted, and she would make no effort to prevent the carrying out of the persecution. The Wilson family changed its mind for this afternoon, when summoned to the Police Court, the family refused to accompany the officers from the County Jail. The police captain then ordered a detachment of police to remove the family bodily to court. The family refused to come, and a new order from the judge was required.

It was intimated at the police office that the Wilsons fell back on a technicality in the commitment, the use of "is" instead of "are" for the trio, and would attempt every step and device possible, would sue the city for false imprisonment. They were carried to the patrol wagon and went to court without taking wraps or hats. At the trial the women displayed the same stubbornness as upon their arrest. They refused to answer questions, and tried in every way to block the proceedings. Their attorney finally hit upon a plan of escape. He found a technical error in the complaint and secured the release of the prisoners. They expect to return to their Los Angeles home within a few days.

Senator Davis Discusses the Monroe Doctrine—The Appropriation Bills. Credit Mobilier Methods—The Railroad Inquiry.

FIFTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

Taking up the islands of Cuba, Hawaii, Senator Davis showed the consistent and persistent course of the United States in applying the doctrine to the islands. He said that he had been invoked in the case of Cuba as never England or France had sought to establish colonies. In the case of Hawaii a resolution had been passed at the last session of Congress declaring that the United States would not recognize any foreign interest in the affairs of Hawaii. He then referred to the debate over Hawaii and the efforts to restore the Hawaiian monarchy, a sanguinary and barbarous war, and said that he believed a resolution as that to Hawaii should a question be raised as to the policy of a firm protectorate and the support of the Hawaiian republic. He referred to the pending Hawaiian doctrine to the pending Hawaiian question. Senator Davis took up the Venezuelan question. Venezuela had been claimed by the United States as the rightful boundary. The claim but, as on Saturday, not one arose in support of the resolution. In North Carolina asked if there was any member, Democrat, Populist or Republican, who would raise his hand in his denials of this question. There was a chorus of "no" from both sides of the House.

The omission in the bill of the provision of a chief clerk for the Bureau of Investigation was a point on which was made upon the Secretary's recommendation, led to the insinuation that the Secretary wanted to legislate for himself. The Democratic member from Missouri, the Democrat, who was appointed on the recommendation of the Missouri Senators, said that the Secretary's action was an attempt to retaliate upon Senator Vest for the late attack on him in the Senate about the same subject.

An amendment was pending.

Possibility of Their Application to the Nicaragua Canal Project.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The Credit Mobilier scandal figured in the reorganization of the Pacific coast reclamation question before the Senate committee on Pacific Railroads today, brought out the incidental reference, the possibility of such a scandal in the Nicaragua Canal.

F. B. Thurber, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, Transportation, was before the committee, and Senator Morgan was questioning him about the relative probabilities of corruption in the scheme, under government or private management. Reference had been made to the Credit Mobilier by Senator Morgan, whose

I told you: 'When I was stopping at Hot Springs last summer, training for my competition with Fitzsimmons, President Diaz ordered that I be kept out of Mexico; he would not allow the fight to take place on Mexican soil under any consideration. Look at the dignity he was giving me! He was treating me as a champion and he could not consistently allow even if he so desired, that it is a disgrace to have a fight in Mexico. I am bitterly opposed to prizefighting and he could not consistently allow even if he so desired, that it is a disgrace to have a fight in Mexico. I believe that Diaz is a very noble man. The Times

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

A Cotton miser was found dead in his hut with a sack of gold in his hand. The coin will not accompany its owner any further.

Redlands is complaining of a dearth of houses again. Newcomers are having difficulty in finding homes. This is in spite of the erection of 200,000 worth of buildings in a year.

The kite season has opened. Everywhere the smiling and teasing rag for tails. A whole fleet of graceful airships rides at anchor over every hill and everywhere one can see kites nodding and curvetting and glinting white in the sun.

After extended delay the City Council has adopted an ordinance setting apart a district in that portion of the city east of Chinatown and adjoining the river for the maintenance and operation of stock corrals and hay markets. A hegin of stockmen to this locality is looked for at once, and those persons who have complained of the proximity of horse corrals to their homes may comfort themselves in the prospect of speedy and permanent relief.

Several score of Angelenos will depart today for the scene of fiesta festivities in Phoenix, Ariz., bearing with them the greetings of Los Angeles and Southern California to the metropolis of Arizona. Dignity will be imparted to the delegation by the presence of several City Councilmen, who seek sassage of official cares in an excursion to the land of the Apache, adobe, mining camp and other attractions too numerous to mention.

No person who saw the picture of "Thirst" in a recent issue of Harper's Weekly, wherein the dead horse and the dying man so forcibly illustrated the horrors of the American desert, will fail to be thankful that steps are being taken to reduce the danger of these wide expanses of sand to the lowest possible limit. The Supervisors of San Bernardino county have recently decided to place guide-posts over the desert in that county and have now made an appropriation for water tanks.

The people of Riverside have perfected an organization for protecting orchards from frost. At the time of the December frost, which did so great damage, a general raise of temperature throughout the district of 5 deg. would probably have saved four-fifths of the oranges which were frozen, and that that would have been marketable at about a half million dollars. Experiments made have demonstrated that the temperature could have been raised 5 deg. at a comparatively small cost.

The "new woman" tourist is among us. At a leading San Diego hotel the other day, a beautiful, young and handsomely-dressed woman, accompanied by her eighty-year-old papa, tripped up to the desk of the clerk, smiled sweetly at the clerk and said: "We would like two cocktails in the parlor—Manhattan, if you please." And this charming girl and her papa drank the invigorating beverages in the parlor as soberly as if the drink was merely tea. The attractive couple hailed from Boston.

The several Pomona Valley men, who went down to the scene of the latest mining excitement, Escondido, last week, have returned home. They say that the ore is all of a low grade, and that but three or four men have claims at Escondido that give sufficient promise for expending any capital upon them. Ten days ago over 600 claims were staked out and filed there, but in less than a week three-fourths of them had been abandoned. Fortunately the weather has been balmy, and will for several weeks, or there might have been the usual amount of hardships and suffering among the men who always rush into a new-born mining camp.

The city election, which takes place in Riverside in April, will hinge largely on the question of prohibition or high license. Those who oppose the prohibition system at present prevailing in Riverside claim that in no time in the history of the city has there been so much quiet guzzling of alcoholic beverages as during the past year or so. Of the three candidates, perhaps, the Enterprise comes out for high license, the Reflex for prohibition, while the weak and wobbly Press, of undetermined journalistic sex, is working itself into a fever in the desperate efforts which it is making to avoid taking a decided stand on the question. Little else could have been expected of a nondescript publication edited by a nannypot, who has done his best to make Riverside a laughing stock abroad by his absurd and pusillanimous course in relation to the recent unfortunate freeze at that place.

PERCY'S PREDICAMENT.

THE GENIAL "COLONEL" IS IN A BAD FLIGHT.

An Alleged Sure-thing Gambler Arrested for Receiving—Accused of Robbing a Sleeping Passenger—He Denies His Guilt.

Ed Percy, the man who has figured as the "colonel" in several alleged bunco games recently, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Steele on a warrant charging him with burglary.

Percy is a well-known sport, who for some time has been running a clear stand and so-called "clubroom" in a room adjoining a saloon at the corner of First and Alameda streets. "Club" room was, according to current reports, merely a poker joint to which suckers were lured to be fleeced by professional gamblers. Several cases of this kind, which were alleged to have occurred at Percy's place were reported to the police, and only as late as last Saturday Ed Collins, who was an alleged bunco stealer for Percy's "club," was held in $500 bail to answer the charge of having assisted in swindling a young German named Heinrichs out of $120 in a poker game at Percy's joint.

According to Heinrichs's statement, Percy, otherwise known as the "colonel," helped to fleece him, but for some reason best known to the police, reports were made to the police, and Percy was not arrested for complicity in the robbery, but he was bagged yesterday afternoon on another charge. The warrant on which he was charged charges him with entering the room of one E. G. Peck, in a lodging-house on New High street and stealing $20.

Peck is a printer who works at night and sleeps in daytime. Percy and Peck room at the same house, their apartments being on the same floor. Peck claims that he woke up Saturday afternoon and saw Percy in the act of leaving his (Peck's) room. He looked under his pillow, where he had placed his watch and $30, and lo, the money had vanished; so had Percy. Peck made an investigation and came to the conclusion that Percy had stolen his money, then he reported the matter to the police.

Detective Goodman got out a warrant for Percy's arrest yesterday, and Detective Steele served it. He found him on the street, accompanied by a woman, supposed to be his wife. The woman accompanied Percy to the station and shed many tears over his incarceration.

Percy was arraigned before Acting Police Judge Rossiter and placed under $1500 bail to appear for examination at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. In default of bail he was locked up for safe-keeping.

Percy stoutly denies his guilt. Detective Goodman says he remarked to him: "You know I would skin a man, but I wouldn't rob him while he was asleep."

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

Mission Hall was crowded last evening, the occasion being an entertainment given by the Sacred Heart League of the Mission Church. A literary and musical programme of rare excellence was presented. Huge clusters of calla lilies graced the platform. Many of the local clergy were present, and occupied prominent seats in the audience. In the rear of the hall dainty tete-a-tete tables were arranged, their snowy damask being brightened by dainty clusters of violets and carnations in cut-glass bowls. The Refreshment Committee was composed of Messrs. Quinan, Brady, Rodriguez and Williams. During the intermission ice cream and cake were served by pretty girls, among them being Misses Dora Matfield, Laura and Silveria Alcantara, Edith and Josephine, Anna and Lottie Trave. The literary programme commenced with a piano duet, "Grand Galop de Concert," by Misses Quinan and Rodriguez. On account of illness, Miss McCabe, who was down on the programme for a contralto solo, was not able to appear. C. Jackson next rendered a solo, "O Sweetheart, When a Boy," very creditably. The Spanish dances by little Miss Ida Larue delighted the audience, being recalled several times. Miss Ida Healy was next on the programme, and sang "Love's Sorrow." The soprano solo, "Staccato Polka," by Misses Anna and Lottie Trave. The literary programme commenced with a piano duet, "The Whirlwind," was played by Misses Bell, Anna and Lottie Trave. The soprano solo, "Hugonots," by Miss Collette; "La Belle Dancer," by little Miss Ada Smith was followed by a recitation by Miss Thornton. Mme. Tregear again delighted the audience by singing "The Last Rose of Summer," in excellent style. The piano and mandolin, by Miss Theresa Sullivan and Edward Warren was rendered very acceptably. The programme closed with the quartette, "The Grand Old Ocean," by Messrs. C. Jackson, J. Cunningham, R. Beeby and A. M. Thornton.

THE BEBEL GERMAN. The young ladies of the Bebel Society gave a delightful german last evening at their rooms, No. 345 South Main street. The chaperones of the affair were: Mmes. C. L. Strong, E. T. Swaine, J. S. Voseberg, H. G. Newhall, D. Mason and Niles. The spacious parlors were lovely in dainty arrangements of green. Graceful palms were seen in corners and the mantels were covered with English ivy, while smilax graced the archways and chandeliers. A grand orchestra furnished delightful music throughout the evening. Eighteen couples participated in the dance, the german being led by Miss Swain. During the evening a dainty supper was served, the favors being chiefly in green. Those present were: Mmes. Marley of St. Louis, Mayl Chapman, Dwight Whiting, Henry Newhall, Dean Mason Niles, Miss Marley, Mayl Todd Chapman, Pauline Leno, Overton, Georgina Strong, Nellie Strong, Kirby, Davis, Gertrude Johnson and Sadie Johnson. WOMEN OF SHAKESPEARE.
Frederick Warde Talked to the Normal School Students.
Yesterday afternoon Frederick Warde the great dramatist, delivered an address before the pupils of the Normal School on "The Women of Shakespeare." The speaker endeavored to portray the different phases of woman's character as conceived by the great master mind of the English drama, and set forth in his plays. Pope has said: "The greatest study of mankind is man," and he might have added woman also. Shakespeare studied woman closely. Though his own married wife, Anne Hathaway, was in his senior years, he was most unhappy, and such a man naturally looks upon woman with aversion. It is not so with Shakespeare. One of the noblest and purest characters in Portia, in the "Merchant of Venice." Of noble birth and large fortune, the bestowal of her hand is, by her father's request, to be of her own choice. She is the fortunate suitor who finds a treasure in one of three caskets of gold, silver and lead.

At last she met her fate in Bassanio, and with trembling watches to see if he will choose the lucky casket. "I hope it is not a silver casket," she can fancy she says in her heart. Fate is kind to her knight, who had also won over the downs so free," by the old Mission Church choir, was received with applause. After an intermission, a piano duet, "The Whirlwind," was played by Misses Bell, Anna and Lottie Trave. The soprano solo, "Hugonots," by Miss Collette; "La Belle Dancer," by little Miss Ada Smith was followed by a recitation by Miss Thornton. Mme. Tregear again delighted the audience by singing "The Last Rose of Summer," in excellent style. The piano and mandolin, by Miss Theresa Sullivan and Edward Warren was rendered very acceptably. MRS. ADINA MITCHELL WANTS REFORM AT THE REFORM SCHOOL.

She Called on the Governor to Suggest a Reduction of the Salary Roll—States Board of Examiners Coming Down.

An Associated Press dispatch from Sacramento says that Mrs. Adina Mitchell of Los Angeles, a trustee of the Whittier Reform School, called on Gov. Budd yesterday to talk over some reforms in connection with this institution. She believes that if there is a certain reconstruction of the salary roll at least $700 a month can be saved to the State. The cut as proposed by her would affect all employees from the superintendent down.

In the same connection the Governor is in receipt of a letter from W. C. Patterson, another trustee. Mr. Patterson makes a suggestion of a revision of the salary roll that would be a saving of $700 a year. In speaking of the matter, the Governor stated that the Whittier Reform School was the most expensive institution in the State. Superintendent John E. Coffin, of the Reform School, he said, got $3600 a year, while Warden Adolph of the Folsom penitentiary got but $3000. The other salaries paid were in line with this. When the State Board of Examiners visit Whittier next week it will probably reform the salary roll.

Ministerial Union.

The union ministers' meeting convened at the Y.M.C.A. parlors at 10:30 yesterday. There was a large attendance. Rev. J. K. Fowler, the new pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, read a paper on "The Manly Method of the Pulpit in Dealing With Scepticism." Rev. George B. Dye presented the Sunday programme of the Christian Workers' Convention and suggested that the ministers preach on "Work and Workers" next Sunday and call special notice to the coming convention. He also announced that Alexander Patterson had signified his intention of being present. Resolutions were adopted expressing the sorrow of the Ministerial Union at the death of Rev. Bishop Atticus G. Haygood of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who was for a time a resident of Los Angeles.

An Ocean Greyhound.

(Harper's Round Table.) Just as the government of the city of New York is divided among the Mayor, Aldermen, and boards and commissioners of various departments, so the administration of a giant steamship is divided into specialties. The Mayor is the chief of the city. The captain is the chief officer of the ship. He is more than that. From the time she leaves port until she enters port he is master of the life and liberty of every person aboard the ship, as well as of all the property in it. He is an autocrat. Of course he must administer his authority wisely. Unwise autocrats don't last long, whether on shore or afloat.

The head of each department is responsible for all that goes on in it. The first officer is at the head of the crew, or navigating department. The chief engineer directs everything connected with the engines. The chief steward has full control of all that has to do with the comfort of the passengers and crew. Each of these chiefs makes a written report at noon every day. Thus the captain is kept informed of everything pertaining to the ship's welfare.

Every one of the senior officers of the ship is a duly qualified master, capable of taking her around the world if need be. The day is divided into "watches" or tours of duty, of four hours each. One junior officer is on the bridge with each senior officer on duty. The senior officer directs the ship's course. He never leaves the bridge while he is on watch. Should he do so he would be dismissed at once. There is no sleeping possible. It would be just as if he had died suddenly. His friends would all feel sorry, but nothing could be done to help him. Two seamen are always on watch in the bow of the ship, and two more in the foretop. Twice as many are on the lookout in thick weather. Observations are taken every two hours. In the good old sailing ship days the captain was content to "take the sun" at noon every day. If the sky was cloudy for a day or two, it really didn't matter much, for he could go along on dead reckoning. But on an ocean greyhound, rushing over the course between New York and Europe at the rate of more than twenty miles an hour, it is highly important that the ship's position be known all the time. Fog may come down at any moment, observations may not be obtainable for ten or twelve hours. The positions of more than one hundred stars are known. By observing any one of these the ship's whereabouts can be ascertained in a few minutes. Of course the "road" becomes more or less familiar to a man who crosses the ocean along the same route year after year. Yet this familiarity never breeds contempt or any carelessness. No man knows all the influences that affect the currents of the ocean. You may find the current in one place the same forty times in succession; on the forty-first trip it may be entirely changed. Sometimes a big storm that has ended four or five hours before the steamship passes a certain place may have given the surface current a strong set in one direction. There is no means of telling when these influences may have been at work save by taking the ship's position frequently.

Widow Bush Won Her Suit.

An English widow named Bush, residing in Whitechapel, wished to have her grief for her husband perpetuated and made a contract to be photographed weeping at her husband's grave in Ilford Cemetery, paying the photographer in advance. At the appointed time she waited by the tombstone and continued to weep until evening, but no photographer appeared. Mrs. Bush brought suit against the man to recover the money, and when the defendant was questioned he said he had gone to Manor Park Cemetery instead. The Judge would not accept this flimsy excuse, and he was required to refund the money and pay the cost of the prosecution.

B. Duncan's Case Against the Atlantic & Pacific.

An Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco says: The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Blanton Duncan against the Atlantic and Pacific Railway, for $50,000, dismissing the case. Duncan's claim was that the railroad had injured his character by working him into a case before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

BUSINESS FOR THE SUNSET.

CHICAGO Feb. 17.—A deal is said to have been made between the Southern Pacific and the Seaboard Air Line whereby all the traffic that can possibly be diverted to the former's Sunset route will be delivered by the latter at New Orleans. This deal is considered to be a direct blow at the Southern Pacific direct connections at Ogden. Its object, however, is said to be to divert as much traffic as possible from the Central Pacific Road, the Southern Pacific having entered upon a deliberate and systematic policy of impoverishing that part of its system with the view of frightening the United States to settle its claims against that road on the earliest terms.

A Hopeful Sign.

(Alameda Argus.) A Good Government Club has been organized in Oakland. It is on a different plan from the one organized in Alameda, and is wider, there is a field for it. There is also one being organized in San Jose. There would seem to be a fruitful soil for such a move down in the Garden City, also. We take these several movements to mean that those people who should be interested in local politics are now getting themselves interested, and are coming to the conclusion that it will pay to spend a half day from their business, and attend to their civic duties. We all know with what fine scorn the "leading citizen" has always received the suggestion that he should take a hand in the primaries and conventions. Many of us know how difficult it has generally been to even get him to come a half hour early to cast his ballot, and how finding a line of voters waiting to cast their ballots, he has often refused to wait ten minutes until his turn should come. If these good government clubs are an indication of the leading citizen's change of heart on this subject it is a most hopeful sign, indeed.

A fire alarm was turned in at 8:30 o'clock yesterday evening for a small blaze at No. 1256 Arnold street, caused by a lamp setting fire to the paper on a wall in the house of J. Fugh. The flames were extinguished after about $50 damage was done.

"You Don't Become a Slave to their Use!"

The above words have been truthfully spoken concerning Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets by one who has had abundant opportunity to observe their more favorable action as compared with that of other pills.

Most pills and medicines in use for constipation, in the long run, "make a bad matter worse." Unlike such agents, Dr. Pierce's Pellets exert such a tonic or strengthening effect upon the membranes of the stomach and bowels, as to produce lasting benefit. Their use can, therefore, be gradually discontinued. With most pills the longer they are taken, the more dependent upon their use the patient becomes. Not so with the "Pellets." Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate. Hence, their great popularity with sufferers from habitual constipation.

The Pellets cure costiveness, or constipation, biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic.

They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them. Sold by all dealers.

Gratitude Of a Paralytic

Expressed for the Return of His Health By a Remedy Which Is Taking the Place of Drugs and Doctors.

Any one can charge and apply this Electric Belt. It is applied when you retire at night. You always feel its power, and can regulate it.

It costs no more than what you pay for doctor bills in a few months, and will be a good friend to you at all times of sickness.

The Original of This Letter Can Be Seen at Dr. Sanden's Office, San Jose, Cal., Feb. 6, 1896.

DR. A. T. SANDEN: Dear Sir—I received your letter last night, and am glad to answer it. The reason I did not write before is that I am confined in the county hospital here and the doctor would not let me wear the belt at first, but I kept at him till he gave his consent, and it has done wonders for me since then. Five weeks ago today I was helpless in bed with paralysis. The first week after applying the belt I could raise myself in bed and sit on the bed. The second week I could get out of bed and sit on a chair. Third week I could walk about twenty feet with two canes. Fourth week, I went outside, down a stair of six steps, walked about 100 yards, went in again up those steps, without help, and this morning I went out and walked a quarter of a mile. I could walk much faster but I don't want to force myself. I can sit at the table and cut my own meat; in fact, can do anything without help or troubling anyone.

It was a blessing to me when I purchased that belt. I shall always be glad to recommend to my friends and everybody the Dr. Sanden Electric Belt as the best and cheapest medicine in the world. You can use this letter if it is any help to you or anybody else, and if anybody wishes to correspond with me my address is Gilroy, Cal., but at present it is at Santa Clara County Hospital, San Jose, Cal.

Yours truly,

F. A. MONARCH.

There Are Many Others.

Over One Thousand Cures have been reported for this famous Belt during the past six months. It works altogether on the plan of adding strength and activity to the nervous and vital organs of the body. When these organs are healthy it is impossible for disease to exist.

Are you skeptical? Call and inspect the power and mechanical construction of this appliance, and see the original letters received from patients recently cured. It will convince you. If you can't call then send for the little book, "Three Classes of Men." It is free, and very instructive.

READ THIS LETTER.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1, 1904.
To the Public: I was seriously afflicted for about ten years with lung, liver and kidney troubles. Tongue could never extend, the misery I endured during those years, I was reduced in flesh until I was a mere skeleton; my sight and hearing were badly impaired; I was constantly troubled with constipation and piles, and had a severe chronic cough. In short, life was a burden and death would have been a welcome guest. I was treated by various specialists from the United States and Canada, but of no avail. I tried all the patent medicines and pills I ever heard of, but these only gave temporary relief. Through the persistent advice of friends, I finally resolved to try Dr. J. O. Drien of 223 Upper Main street, a trial. Of course, like many others, I had no faith in Chinese doctor, but it only took a few doses of his life-giving herbs to knock all the skepticism out of me and give me impetus to follow their superior human skill. In just five weeks the doctor pronounced me cured and now I can truthfully say that I never was healthier and never felt better in my life. My sight and hearing are both fully restored; my chronic cough, constipation and piles are entirely cured, and I am rapidly gaining in flesh, having gained forty pounds in two months. I am truly grateful to the doctor for having created in me a new life.

I earnestly recommend all sufferers and skeptics to give the doctor a trial and be convinced of his superior skill as a physician.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN M. STEVENSON,

DEATH TO FRUIT PESTS.
To Make the Orchard pay you must spray, winter and summer, with Prof. Brown's Insect Extirpator, the only insecticide known that will kill all insect life without injury to Tree, Fruit or Foliage.

Endorsed by the State Board of Horticulture of California, Oregon and Washington. Used by many nurserymen and orchardists. My winter wash is the only solution that will kill the woolly aphis (use only while the foliage is off). My summer wash is a sure destroyer of the codling moth eggs, and all insects except woolly aphis (use just after the blossoms fall off). My hophouse wash kills all insects that infest vines, vegetables or plants.

The ingredients used in my formulas can be found in any drugstore, costs must less than other washes. (Full and explicit directions for mixing and using.)

Knowing I have a sure remedy, some unprincipled parties are now selling imitations. Therefore, to discourage all such parties, I have concluded for a short time to reduce the price of the three formulas to $1.50 by mail to any address. Formulas copyrighted January 14, 1900. P. BRANCH OFFICE OF THE TIMES.

PASADENA, Feb. 17.
George W. Wilson of South Pasadena has been appointed principal of the new Lincoln school.

Mrs. Cloud, who was injured on Saturday by a fall from her carriage, is pronounced out of danger.

Mrs. N. J. Thomas of Salem, Mich., and W. W. Fife of Yuba, Mich., are guests at Hotel Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McKiver of Henry, Ill., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bassett of Franklin avenue over Sunday.

The Marengo avenue Chautauqua circle met this evening with Mr. and Mrs. Test. An interesting program was rendered.

A. Adams, the blacksmith, fell in a faint in Wood's drugstore this morning. He was revived and sent home in a carriage.

Hon. John C. Spooner of Madison, Wis., late United States Senator, and his wife expect to visit Mrs. Jeanne Carr in Pasadena in a few days.

Miss Nellie Louise Marquette, Mich., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Willets on North Los Robles avenue, will remain in Pasadena for the next three months.

A lively interest is being taken in Pasadena in the banquet of the Young Men's Republican Club in Los Angeles March 4. A. Adams, the blacksmith, fell in a faint in Wood's drugstore this morning. He was revived and sent home in a carriage.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Frost of Marengo avenue are being congratulated upon the birth of a son, named "baby," and he arrived in his new domain this morning.

John F. Godfrey Post, W.R.C., extends an invitation to the corps of Los Angeles and visiting members of Pasadena to attend the reception to be given Miss Nellie Marquette, Mich., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Willets on North Los Robles avenue, and will remain in Pasadena for the next three months.

Frank Orr, manager of the local Postal Telegraph office, has been promoted to the position of chief clerk at the main office of the company in Los Angeles, and will leave Pasadena on Tuesday to begin his new duties. Miss Budd of San Francisco will take his place here.

Mail Carrier Petrie is still suffering severely from the result of an accident on Saturday and will probably be unable to make his accustomed rounds for some time. The injury was upon the left side, rendering the arm broken and the right arm severely injured.

The meeting of Connecticut Association Saturday afternoon was a very enjoyable affair. The speakers were Messrs. J. M. Hubbard, C. A. Tuttle, J. B. Clapp and others. The choice of the meeting Mr. Law will relate some of his experiences in Cuba. Twenty-five members at present constitute the association.

On Sunday as the horse-car on the down grade on Los Robles avenue was making its usual trip, it broke and the sedately-moving car accelerated its speed to such an extent that the passengers were alarmed. Only the presence of mind of the driver of the car averted what might have been a serious accident. He managed the chain and it is still doing duty.

A lively football game between the second team of Throop Institute and the High School boys was played at the south of the Throop Hotel this afternoon resulted in a tie. The players were: Reed, Sanders, Vose, Templeton, Snyder, Pettigale, Hasse and Fulton for the Throop, and Randall, Spalding, Youkum, Thomas, Bliss, Frost, and others for the High School.

T. P. LUKENS RESIGNS.

The City Council loses an old member.

Some months ago, T. P. Lukens, a member of the Council, resigned his resignation in the hands of the City Clerk, but learning that a man was to be appointed to fill the vacancy who was not in his opinion, the choice of the people in the First Ward, and that the petition of residents in that ward for the appointment of a certain man for the position would probably be ignored by the trustees, Mr. Lukens withdrew his resignation from the hands of the City Clerk before it had any legal effect.

Therefore never came before the Council at all, at the time, and consequently no action could be taken upon it. To-day, to the surprise of the Council, Mr. Lukens presented to the Council his formal resignation, to take effect at once, in order that the answer should be elected, as required by law, at the forthcoming election in April.

In conversing with Mr. Lukens this morning upon the subject, the Times correspondent was told by him that the demands of his business have so increased as to require all his time, and that having served the city six years, he believes he has done his duty.

The resignation of Mr. Lukens increases the chance of a lively campaign by one count, as now three Councilmen, instead of two, will be elected. Several persons are prominently mentioned for the position, and the position is expressed that the choice is to be left to the people of the ward.

The resignation was accepted, and the election is so near, the vacancy will probably not be filled until that time.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Several Street-Improvement Matters Passed Upon.

The City Council met in regular session this afternoon, all the members present except Trustees Lukens. A session was held in the afternoon, devoted largely to routine business. A petition from property owners on Marengo avenue between the Southern California Railway and Villa Street, requesting that the Board cause the street to be widened three feet on the east side, and to be sidewalked with cement, and that the present intention of the Board to curb with cement be abandoned, came before the Board, and was referred to the Street and Alley Committee and the City Attorney for action. A petition from property

BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Los Angeles, Feb. 17, 1896.
POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS. The enthusiasm with which the recent postal savings bank bill was received by the general public adds another argument in favor of the establishment of post office savings banks, which would furnish an absolutely sure place of deposit for savings at a moderate rate of interest, and at the same time furnish the government with all the money it needs.

Another strong argument showing the need for such an institution, is the fact that many people persist in getting the postoffice department to take care of their money anyhow, by the clumsy and expensive device of having money orders mailed out to themselves at another station. In this way, instead of getting interest on their money, they have to pay the government for taking care of it.

There are many arguments in favor of postal savings banks. It is difficult to find anything against them, except that they would to some extent interfere with the business of private savings banks, as the latter are not allowed to be considered by many a full compensation for a lower rate of interest that the government would pay.

COMMERCIAL.
JAPANESE COMPETITION. The merchants and manufacturers of San Francisco appear to be much stirred up over the prospect of severe competition on part of the Japanese, who have already been invading that field with their wares. At a mass-meeting of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, held last night, the price resolutions were unanimously passed, with instructions to have them printed and a copy sent to every Senator and Representative in Congress.

Whereas, the matter of the invasion of the manufacturing field of the United States by goods from Japan, and the consideration by the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association of California, and the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco; and whereas, a joint committee from the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association and the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco, has reported that a great danger to the manufacturing industries of the United States exists in the rapid strides being made by Japan in manufacturing; and whereas, this meeting of the members of the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association, and the Chamber of Commerce, called for the purpose of discussing the subject, has so far as the report of said joint committee and remarks made, be it

Resolved, by the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association and the Chamber of Commerce, in convention assembled, that the Congress of the United States be requested and urged to appoint a committee to investigate the industrial situation, and to report thereon to the next session of Congress.

LUMBER FOR LOS ANGELES. Los Angeles and the Puget Sound country have been to some extent rivals, but the citizens of the northern section ought to entertain a friendly feeling toward Los Angeles, for in all probability nothing has done more to build up the city than the immense consumption of lumber in Los Angeles and other cities of Southern California. The fact that there have been for some time an average of nine ships unloading Puget Sound lumber at San Pedro shows of what vast importance this trade is to the northern section.

Tacoma and Seattle should certainly pray that Los Angeles may continue to grow and flourish.

THAT NEW YORK EXHIBIT. Reference was made in the Times a few days ago to reports that had been circulated regarding a California State exhibit to be made in New York in May. It was stated by the Times that the exhibit was made up of a collection of professional and industrial products of this enterprise and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce had been unable to obtain any particulars in regard to it.

Frank Wiggins of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce recently wrote to J. A. Fletcher, president of the State Board of Trade, as follows:
